

WES WALKER DEAD

Wesley W. Walker, aged 78 years, 11 months, an old soldier and for many years a prominent and well known citizen, died at his home in this city Sunday night. For about sixteen years he served Mitchell as town marshall and later when this place was made a city he served as Chief-of-Police.

The funeral service was held at the home Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock, conducted by Rev. D. B. Lloyd, past or of the First Baptist Church. Burial was in the Mitchell Cemetery.

He is survived by the widow, two sons, John and Carl Walker, and four daughters—Mrs. Laura Morarity, Mrs. Hattie Eversole, Mrs. Burns Railing, and Mrs. Zeno True, also one sister, Mrs. Sarah Landreth.
